3. The limits of weight allowed are as follows—

BOOKS AND PAPERS.—To British Office, 5 lbs. PATTERNS.—5 lbs. If without intrinsic value.

BOOKS AND PAPERS.—To the Continent, 4 lbs.

PATTERNS.—3 or 4.

4. The following articles cannot be sent Post, at all—Glasses, Liquids, Gunpowder, Matches, Candles, Serpents, Indigo, Pyrotechnics, &c.

5. The following articles may be sent by Parcel, but at the discretion of the Mail or otherwise, or injurious to persons dealing with them.

PARCELS.

The public is reminded that in China, as in Japan, there is no such thing as Parcel Post. Much trouble and disappointment is caused persistent attempts to send small valuable trifles through the Post. Paint, Candles, Articles of Dress, Fancy Work, and similar Presents, are continually being refused, the senders thereby often spent more in Postage than would be paid the freight by steamer. No refund can be made for the expense of the value of Steamer Mail, obliterated before the nature of the contents was discovered.

PATTERNS.

Some difficulty is experienced in obtaining general understanding of what is a Pattern, in a bond like sample of goods which the sender has, or, of goods which he wishes to order. It is on account of the smallest possible mistake, made with, showing such goods, and, more, have no intrinsic value.
